

PROGRAMME

- 8am Registration
- 8.30am Pōwhiri
Welcome
Lizzie Marvelly - MC
- 9.30am What we do today is our legacy for tomorrow: Te Anga Whakamua
Race Relations Commissioner, Dame Susan Devoy
- Building Trust and Confidence through Culture Change
Police Commissioner Mike Bush
- KEYNOTE SPEECH: All of our stories can change the world
Australian human rights lawyer and advocate, Deng Adut
- 10.40am Morning Tea
- 11.00am A Multicultural nation in a Bicultural context
Director of Victoria University's Centre for Applied Cross Cultural Research, Professor Colleen Ward
- Communities & Cultural Spaces:
Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa
Director of Ngā Manu Atarau (Communities, Repatriation, & Sector Development), Dr Te Ahukaramū Charles Royal;
Director of Exhibition Renewal, Karen Mason
- New Zealand Attitudes & Values Study
Dr Chris Sibley, University of Auckland
- Don't Be A Bystander: Stand up and Speak Up for Others
2016 Race Unity Speech Competition winner, Te Ariki Te Puni
- 12.30pm Lunch
- 1.15pm "That's Us" Launch
Race Relations Commissioner Dame Susan Devoy & MC Lizzie Marvelly
- Diversifying the Public Sector
State Services Commissioner Peter Hughes
- Both Worlds
Media student and Burundian Kiwi, Adorate Mizero
- NZ Rugby presents: Sport for Everyone
Facilitated by Paora Ammunson (Wairarapa Bush Rugby Union chair), features: Ian Long (NZ Rugby Public Relations Director); Tayo Agunlejika (Multi Ethnic Football Tournament); Mark Ngan Kee (NZ Chinese Association Youth and Sports committee)
- All Good in the Hood: Ethnicity and Enterprise
Facilitated by Guy Ryan (Inspiring Stories), features: Dai Phonevilay & Dal Philavong (My Kitchen Rules finalists, owners of Taste of Lao), Pinaman Owusu-Banahene (African Fashion Festival New Zealand), and Pearl Robin (TechTank)
- 3pm Afternoon Tea
- 3.20pm Many Communities, One Direction
Facilitated by Vanisa Dhiru (VP National Council of Women), features: Tayyaba KhaN (Chief Executive, Changemakers Refugee Forum), Raveen Annamalai (President, Multicultural Council, Wellington), Ma deva Vedanta (Web designer), Inspector Tracey Thompson (NZ Police, Wellington Community Patrollers)
- 4.30 pm NZ Diversity Forum 2016 concludes
Te Papa curators will be hosting private tours of their back-of-house collections as well as facilitated floor-talks. Exclusively available for Forum delegates, those interested can register on the day.